Organized by

TEACHING LEARNING CENTRE

UNDER THE SCHEME OF PANDIT MADAN MOHAN MALAVIYA NATIONAL MISSION ON TEACHERS AND TEACHING, MHRD, GOVT. OF INDIA

About the Seminar:

One of the significant concerns reflected in present educational context is related to considering quality as a journey and not as a destination. In this frame of reference, quality is being widely discussed and defined in conceptual terms. Towards this end, teachers and teacher educators have to acquire an appropriate level of understanding and skill to ensure quality as a sustainable venture for which effective indicators have to be explored carefully in the context of new educational programmes. This seminar will focus on reflections centered on the seminal issues pertaining to various dimensions of teaching learning processes, their impacts and effects in so far as the present scenario is concerned. The various sessions of the seminar will identify and explore various suitable parameters for promoting quality in teaching learning arrangements, effective use of educational resources and assessment techniques recommended in today's paradigmic shift.

Objectives of Seminar:

The seminar is aimed at developing wide ranging discussions centered on quality parameters. It will also explore the potential and possibilities for better and more effective teaching learning processes, management of learning conditions and assessment of learning outcomes in the various context of formal and non-formal educational processes.

Sub-themes:

The Sub-themes of this seminar are as follows:

1. Emerging paradigm of teaching and learning.
2. Innovative practices in language pedagogy.
3. Quality parameters in pedagogy and evaluation.
