Programme Backdrop

As we all know that NEP 2020 envisions Indian Centric Education. The ancient Indian Knowledge system that has not only set the highest standards of multidisciplinary & holistic teaching & research but has also made seminal contribution to the world knowledge in diverse field of educational disciplines. Thus, these rich legacies & knowledge of various disciplines must be preserved, nurtured, researched & put to new uses through our current educational system. This will be possible only when one has the understanding of the Indian knowledge and ability to relate the content in diverse perspectives. Since, Indian Philosophy & Psychology are two the areas which provides strong basis for having insight in holistic & multidisciplinary education, hence, it becomes pertinent to know & understand the six schools of Indian philosophy & various psychological concepts in Indian perspective. In this backdrop, two weeks multidisciplinary Refresher Course is being organized with an intent to develop insight in Indian Philosophy & various Psychological concepts and its relevance in multi-perspective contexts.

Programme Objectives

The objectives of this programme are:

- to develop conceptual understanding of Indian Schools of Philosophy and their educational implications.
