Programme Backdrop

The educational scenario of 21st century demands critical need of having the ability to work in different capacities, handle educational activities & to address emerging challenges. This requires special skills set and competencies associated with Leadership & Management and their practice also yields good results. Thus, not only insight & application of concepts of management & leadership but role of teacher as leader and manager also becomes quite significant in the current educational scenario. The Indian Knowledge System (IKS) acts as a rich source for understanding these concepts & practising of these roles. This has necessitated the identification, exploration & assimilation of basic concepts & practices related to Leadership & Management. In this backdrop, two weeks Multidisciplinary Refresher Course has been organized with an intent to identify & use various concepts & practices related to Leadership & Management in IKS.

Programme Objectives

The objectives of this programme are:

- to familiarize with the basic concepts of Leadership & Management.
